

Unlock a Career in Information Security

CCSF Computer Networking & Information Technology announces a new program at City College San Francisco:

Information Security Analyst Apprenticeship

An 18 month, paid, on-the-job training and academic program that provides you with real-world experience leading to a high paying job in the field of Information Security.

To learn more about the program and the required pre-apprenticeship courses you need to apply, attend the information session listed below:

When: Tuesday, December 12th, 2017, 6:30 pm to 7:30 pm

Where: City College of SF, Ocean Campus (50 Phelan), MUB 140

For more information, contact Steven Nelson, Employment Specialist at City College of San Francisco, snelson@ccsf.edu. See you there!